

CATSS 2023 Fall Symposium
Mississippi Room, Coffman Memorial Union
Friday, September 15th

Agenda

11:30am-12:25pm

Lunch

12:25-12:30pm

Director's Welcome

Andrew Oxenham

12:30-12:50pm

Hearing loss and healthy aging: The ACHIEVE study

Jim Pankow & Jackie Weycker, ACHIEVE Group

12:50-1:10pm

The utilization of multi-modal imaging for inherited retinal disease patients seen at the University of Minnesota

Richard Sather

1:10-1:30pm

Laryngeal vibration as a somatosensory intervention to treat the voice disorder spasmodic dysphonia

Juergen Konczak

1:30-1:50pm

Targeting unmet need for hearing aids in older adults living with dementia: Insights from the National Core Indicators- Aging and Disability survey

Dana Urbanski

1:50-2:10pm

Coffee Break

2:10-2:30pm

New types of invasive and noninvasive neurostimulation technologies for treating hearing loss and tinnitus

Hubert Lim

2:30-2:50pm

Optimizing parameters for an EEG-based hearing screen using audiobooks

Melissa Polonenko

2:50-3:10pm

Laryngeal vibrotactile stimulation for refractory chronic cough

Erin Shen

3:10-3:30pm

Atypical use of visuospatial context in psychotic psychopathology: A meta-analysis

Victor Pokorny

3:30-4:30pm

Keynote Lecture

Development of inner ear medicines for threshold and supra-threshold indications

Colleen LePrell